

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 4, 2022

Contact: LT Jarred Reid-Dixon 619-709-9422

San Francisco Department of Emergency Management: 415-558-2712

San Francisco Fleet Week Association: 415-939-9493

***MEDIA ADVISORY*****

SAN FRANCISCO KICKS OFF FLEET WEEK

Fleet Week Returns to celebrate the 41st anniversary with weeklong festivities along San Francisco's Port.

What: Local, state, federal and military emergency responders kick off San Francisco Fleet Week's 41st anniversary to honor the long-standing tradition with multi-day celebrations.

San Francisco Mayor London N. Breed and San Francisco Fleet Week conduct a joint press conference to welcome the Fleet and the US Navy Blue Angels back to San Francisco.

Who: United States Navy
United States Marine Corps
United States Coast Guard
San Francisco Department of Emergency Management
San Francisco Sheriff's Office
San Francisco Fire Department
San Francisco Police Department
Port of San Francisco
San Francisco Fleet Week Association

Schedule:

11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Mayor's San Francisco Fleet Week Kick Off Press Conference: Mayor London N. Breed welcomes the Fleet to San Francisco. Speakers include Rear Admiral Wayne Baze (US Navy), Executive Director Mary Ellen Carroll (San Francisco Department of Emergency Management), Executive Director Elaine Forbes (Port of San Francisco) and Lewis Loeven (San Francisco Fleet Week Association).

Where: Civic Center Plaza, 335 McAllister St., San Francisco

Background: Since 2010, San Francisco Department of Emergency Management has partnered with San Francisco Fleet Week and its Center for Humanitarian Assistance to conduct joint military and civilian disaster response exercises in the interests of advancing cooperation between military personnel, first responders and emergency managers to enhance disaster resilience in the San Francisco Bay Area.

For more information visit <https://fleetweeksf.org/>

###